

Privacy Policy

Information that is gathered from visitors

As with other websites, log files are stored on the web server and may include details such as the visitor's IP address, browser type, referring page, and time of visit.

Cookies may be used to remember visitor preferences when interacting with the website.

Where registration is required, the visitor's email address and username will be stored on the server.

How the Information is used

The information is used to enhance the visitor's experience when using the website, including displaying personalized content and possibly advertising.

Email addresses will not be sold, rented, or leased to third parties.

Email may be sent to inform you of news regarding our services or offers from us or our affiliates.

Visitor Options

If you have subscribed to one of our services, you may unsubscribe by following the instructions included in emails that you receive.

You may be able to block cookies through your browser settings, but doing so may prevent access to certain features of the website.

Cookies

Cookies are small digital files stored by your web browser that allow your preferences to be recorded when visiting the website. They may also be used to track return visits to the website.

Third-party advertising companies may also use cookies for tracking purposes.
